

Non Real Time Music Composition / Topics:

- difference between automatic and non-automatic processes with particular reference to real time and non real time methods
- technical listening
- difference between micro-form and macro-form
- structural gestures (articulations)
- editing and juxtaposition techniques applied to real time generated materials
- beat making / composition examples